High Groundwater and Liquefaction Hazards
Associated With Development In Downtown San Bernardino:
Opportunities And Constraints

COMMUNITY PUBLIC STAKEHOLDER MEETING
Wednesday, April 28, 2010
Two Meeting Choices: 1:00 PM or 6:30 PM
Norman F. Feldheym Central Library (Bing Wong Room)
555 West 6th Street, San Bernardino, CA 92410

(Co-hosted by the U.S. Department of Commerce/Economic Development Administration, Inland Valley Development Authority/San Bernardino International Airport, City of San Bernardino/San Bernardino Economic Development Agency and the Water Resources Institute at California State University, San Bernardino)

15 minutes: Welcome; why are we here
The Honorable Mayor Pat Morris
Description of Project
Alex Estrada/Mike Burrows, IVDA/SBIA
Purpose of Meeting, Review Agenda
Susan Carpenter, Facilitator

15 minutes: Overview of High Groundwater and Liquefaction Hazards Associated with Development in Downtown San Bernardino
Susan Lien Longville, Director of CSUSB Water Resources Institute
Opportunity for questions from the public

15 minutes: History of Hazards in City of San Bernardino
Suzie Earp, Historian/Archivist of CSUSB Water Resources Institute
Opportunity for questions from the public

10 minutes: Solutions Being Studied
Bruce Phillips, PACE Advanced Water Engineering
Opportunity for questions from the public

15 minutes: Urban Design Opportunities and Constraints
Mia Lehrer/Hong Joo Kim, Mia Lehrer and Associates
Opportunity for questions from the public

5 minutes: Next steps; public website; next meeting
Susan Carpenter, Facilitator

30 minutes: Stakeholder exercises or discussions with presenters

Watch for updates on this project at http://highgroundwater.csusb.edu